HOW TO GET YOUR DD FORM 214

Our office encourages veterans who need to request their DD Form 214 to visit the Franklin County Veterans Service Commission Office located at 280 East Broad Street, Room 100 Columbus, Ohio 43215.

The Franklin County Veterans Service Commission will not only submit the form to the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA), but will also arrange for the DD214 to be mailed to their office for pickup or directly to an address provided by the veteran.

Working with the Veterans Service Commission will ensure that Franklin County's veterans will be informed of all available benefits afforded to the veterans community in Franklin County when they request their DD214. This service is provided to veterans free of charge. You may also download and submit the form yourself at:

<http://www.archives.gov/research/order/standard-form-180.pdf>

Scan the QR code to find the latest version of our Veterans Discount Sheet.

YOU CAN USE YOUR VETERAN ID CARD FOR:

- Proof of military service.
- Documentation for veteran's benefits such as home and student loans, health benefits and other services.
- Obtaining duplicate copies and certified copies of your DD214 from the Franklin County Recorder's Office.
- Veteran's discounts at participating retail and commercial businesses.
