

Daniel J. O'Connor Jr.

Franklin County Recorder

Website Updates

Today, with the help of the Franklin County Data Center, the Recorder's Office has released an updated version of its website. The site has been designed to make information more accessible and provide quick access to commonly used features. Quick links at the top of the page will link directly to our public records search website, launch the fee calculator, or allow you to contact our office via email.